Dear Mr. Lin:

Thank you for your recent Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated July 11, 2012, to the Department of Labor. Your request was referred to the Office of Foreign Labor Certification on July 16, 2012. Additionally, your request was assigned the tracking number noted above and is being processed in ETA's Office of Foreign Labor Certification (OFLC). Please refer to this number in any future correspondence concerning the above referenced subject matter, including the payment of fees which may be assessed pursuant to Department of Labor regulations at 29 Code of Federal Regulations § 70.19(e).

Please be assured we endeavor to afford every request both careful attention and timely processing; however, due to the large volume of requests received by OFLC we may not be able to process your request within 20 business days. Currently, OFLC is taking approximately 25 business days to begin taking action on many requests. You can view the status of your request through the Department of Labor's FOIA Public Portal at: www.dol.gov/foia/FOIASearch.aspx. This status will be updated as the request moves between OFLC and its national processing centers.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding your FOIA request you may contact this office via mail, fax, phone or e-mail as listed above. Please refer to your assigned tracking number for future correspondence concerning the above referenced subject matter, including the payment of fees which may be assessed pursuant to Department of Labor regulations at 29 Code of Federal Regulations § 70.19(e).

I hope this information is helpful.

Sincerely,
